

HAZARD ANALYSIS – BY OCCUPATIONAL AREAS

Task:

- Think about each hazard. Identify the risk it poses and complete the table
- For each industry area one example has been provided
- Add another hazard in the bottom row if you have time.

Kitchen

Hazard (danger or threat, peril)	Risk (situation involving exposure to danger)	What you could/should do	To whom would you report this?
Oil spilt on floor	Slips and falls	Advise team Clean up quickly Place cone or sign close to oil	Supervisor
Heavy urn of boiling water needs emptying
Frayed electrical cord on toaster or kettle		Remove toaster or kettle
Lid left off of bottle of bleach on bench top
Blood left on counter			Kitchen Supervisor

Garden or outdoor setting – e.g. park/oval/reserve/community garden

Hazard (danger or threat, peril)	Risk (situation involving exposure to danger)	What you could/should do	To whom would you report this?
Insects – bees, mosquitoes, ants etc.	Insect bites – and allergic reaction	Use insect repellent Follow product instructions	Advise team members and supervisor
Sunshine
Rake lying on ground			Remind team of safety
Snakes	Bites and death
Chemicals and spray guns		Check use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

Factory/warehouse/brewery

Hazard (danger or threat, peril)	Risk (situation involving exposure to danger)	What you could/should do	To whom would you report this?
Wet floor	Slips and falls	Advise team Clean up quickly Use cone or signage	Supervisor
Fork lift truck
Falling objects – e.g. stored overhead		Avoid area Place cones around
Loud noises
Plant and equipment (machines)	Injury to arm or legs
Fatigue (tiredness)			Report to supervisor

Hospital, aged or other care facility

Hazard (danger or threat, peril)	Risk (situation involving exposure to danger)	What you could/should do	To whom would you report this?
Vacuum cleaner cord across hall
Broken toilet seat		Place sign on toilet door and on seat 'not in use'
Aggressive patient	Injury to self or other staff/ patients
Trolley loaded with hot drinks
Patient needing to be moved			Written report on patient movements for other staff